

To Whom It May Concern,

I am an independent R&B artist and huge believer in you, which has inspired me to take the path of following my dreams and doing it my way. I wanted to let you know a little bit about myself and why I think I'll be a great addition to your roster.

I am an R&B singer, songwriter, producer, and engineer, whose independently released 30 songs on all major streaming platforms. I've been classically and independently trained in vocals, guitar, and piano, working on my music and my skillset for just under 10 years, and I'm still learning and growing every day. I'm currently working on a project where I'm dividing an album's worth of songs between 4 E.P's, each one representing an idea of what it means to be "sweet and sexy." I think R&B has become overtly vulgar in the past decades and I don't think it needs to be. Some of my biggest inspirations like Marvin Gaye, Al Green, and Otis Redding all expressed themselves through their music that people still listen to decades later, and they never resorted to such vulgar subject matter. I want to remind people that you don't need the shock and awe factor to be memorable.

The reason I'm so eager to sign with your company is because you inspired me to take my destiny into my own hands, and as a show of thanks, I wanted to represent you and all those who have dreams like we do. I think people seriously underestimate what they are capable of, and the sad part is, they will never know because they will never try! I want to be part of a company whose message is one of positivity, encouragement, and the inspiration millions all over the world.

I'm looking forward to all future projects and collaboration. The mark we're going to leave on the music industry will be significant. I'm absolutely sure of it. Let me know if you need anything, the best way to reach me is by email or cell phone.

Sincerely yours,

Bravo Wilson
